Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. and Subsidiary San Francisco, California

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statement of financial condition of Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. and Subsidiary (the Company) as of December 31, 2007, and the related consolidated statements of income (loss), changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. and Subsidiary at December 31, 2007 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2007

(1) Organization

Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc., a Delaware corporation, (the Company) was founded in December 2001. The Company is registered with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and was made effective July 11, 2002; business commenced on July 15, 2002.

Structured as an investment banking and advisory services firm, the Company is engaged in the US equity and debt markets. The business is focused on asset management, private brokerage for high net worth individuals and corporate customers, investment banking, public finance/fixed income trading, and retirement plan services.

The Company has a wholly owned subsidiary, Nollenberger Capital Investment Advisory, Inc. (the subsidiary), which was incorporated on September 25, 2002.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary.

Customer and Proprietary Securities Transactions

The Company clears all customers' transactions on a fully disclosed basis in accordance with a clearing agreement with Bear Stearns Securities Corporation. The Company promptly transmits all funds and delivers all securities received in connection with its activities as an investment banking and advisory services firm to Bear Stearns Securities Corporation and does not otherwise hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers. Commission income and expenses and related clearing charges generated from customer securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis as the transaction occurs.

The Company, in its capacity as a securities dealer, records proprietary securities transactions in regular-way trades on the trade date, as if they had settled. Profit and loss arising from all proprietary securities transactions entered into and for the account and risk of the Company are recorded on a trade date basis. In connection with these proprietary securities transactions, the Company will have amounts receivable and payable to their clearing broker for these transactions that have not reached their contractual settlement date. These receivables and payables are recorded net on the statement of financial condition.

The Company claims an exemption from Rule 15c3-3 on the basis that all its customer transactions are cleared through Bear Steams Securities Corporation on fully disclosed basis.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2007

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Cash & Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business. Cash equivalents exclude cash at clearing organization and cash that is held as collateral for any corporate obligation.

Commissions Receivable

The Company considers commissions receivable to be fully collectible, and accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts has been provided. If amounts become uncollectible, they will be charged to operations when that determination is made.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Unless otherwise indicated, the fair values of all reported assets and liabilities that represent financial instruments (none of which are held for trading purposes) approximate the carrying values of such amounts.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are valued at cost. Depreciation is being provided by the use of accelerated and straight-line methods over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Securities Owned

Securities owned consist of equity securities and are stated at market value with related changes in unrealized appreciation or depreciation reflected in trading profit.

Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes are recognized for differences between the basis of assets and liabilities for financial statement and income tax purposes. The deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled. Deferred taxes are recorded at the statutory rate expected to be in effect when the taxes are paid.

(3) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment consist of the following:

Furniture and equipment	$ 1,300,160
Leasehold improvements	119,787

The note is payable in three annual installments of principal of $50,000 on each July 1 beginning in 2005. The final principal payment of $537,960 along with the last interest payment is due and payable on March 15, 2008.

(8) Standby Letter of Credit

On December 31, 2007, the Company was contingently liable to Silicon Valley Bank under a $200,000 standby letter of credit which expires on May 1, 2008. The standby letter of credit is used as security on the Company's office lease in San Francisco. Under the terms of the New York office lease, the Company is required to furnish a letter of credit in the amount of $114,756. This letter of credit is with Silicon Valley Bank and expires on November 15, 2008. The letters of credit are secured by the Company's certificate of deposit of $314,757 which may not be withdrawn.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2007

(9) Operating Leases

The Company leases office space in San Francisco and San Jose, California and in New York City. The San Jose lease expires on September 30, 2008, the San Francisco lease expires on January 31, 2015 and the New York lease expires on September 30, 2008. The Company subleased office space in San Francisco to two tenants. One sublease ended September 30, 2007 and the other ends on December 31, 2008.

The future annual minimum lease payments are as follows:

Year	Amount
2008	$ 1,405,265

(10) Retirement Plan

The Company sponsors a 401(k) profit sharing plan. The plan allows employees to elect to defer a percentage of compensation each year through salary reduction contributions to the plan. The employer may elect to make discretionary contributions to the plan. At December 31, 2007, the Company did not make a discretionary contribution for the year.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2007

(11) Income Taxes

Income tax expense consists of current California franchise taxes of $1,600 and other state franchise taxes of $5,171. The deferred tax liability is the result of using different depreciation methods and lives for tax and financial reporting purposes. The deferred tax assets are primarily the result of federal and California net operating loss (NOL) carryforwards of $8,990,960 and $7,681,426, respectively. The federal loss carryforwards are due to expire in 2025 through 2027 and the California loss carryforwards are due to expire in 2015 through 2017. A valuation allowance of $3,728,000 has been established for those deferred tax assets that will more likely than not be unrealized. This is an increase of $3,728,000 from the prior year's valuation allowance. The Company's total deferred tax assets and liabilities as of December 31, 2007 are as follows:

Deferred tax assets	$ 3,787,000
Deferred tax liabilities	(59,000)
	3,728,000
Valuation allowance	(3,728,000)
Net deferred tax asset	0

The components of the income tax provision (benefit) for the year ended December 31, 2007 are as follows:

Federal State	$	- 6,772
Deferred: Federal increase in valuation allowance	$	1,133,000
State increase in valuation allowance		278,000
Tax Provision	$  	1,417,772

(12) Common Stock Equity Incentive Plan

The Company has established a stock option plan authorizing the granting of stock options and stock bonus awards of the Company's voting and non-voting common stock for a term of not more than ten years from the grant date. The plan is accounted for under the principles of SFAS No. 123R "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" and related interpretations. The aggregate numbers of shares of voting and non-voting common stock that may be issued as stock awards and incentive stock options are 1,952,353 and 4,000,000 shares, respectively.

Under the plan, the exercise price of the option equals the fair market value of the Company's stock on the grant date. At December 31, 2007 there were 346,000 outstanding option shares with an exercise price at $1.15 per share and 135,000 outstanding option shares with an exercise price at $1.35 per share. The total outstanding options have a weighted average exercise price of $1.21 per share and a weighted average remaining contractual life of 1.13 years. Options for 248,666 shares were exercisable at December 31, 2007 and had a weighted average exercise price of $1.15 per share.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2007

(13) Common Stock Equity Incentive Plan (continued)

The status of the Company's stock option plan as of December 31, 2007 and the changes during the year is summarized below:

Options	Shares	Weighted Average Exercise

During the year restricted stock awards and stock options of $20,721 and $4,314, respectively, were included as compensation expense in the statement of income (loss) under the principles of SFAS No. 123R.

(14) Risk Concentrations

At December 31, 2007, the Company held a deposit at a financial institution, which was in excess of applicable federal insurance limits by $321,757.

The Company's receivable from clearing organization of $993,889, securities owned of $3,449,324 and commissions receivable of $571,367 were all due from Bear Stearns.

(15) Discontinued Operations

On November 26, 2007, due to continuing losses from its equity capital markets division, the Company decided to shut down the division and terminate approximately 30 employees. The loss from operations of that division was $4,635,242. Gross revenues from the division were $3,910,401. Loss on disposal of the assets relating to that division was $93,250. These amounts are reported as a separate component of income after income from continuing operations.

Included in notes receivable is a $30,000 note due from a terminated employee. Accounts payable and accrued expenses include $594,850 in expenses related to the equity capital markets division.

(16) Financial Instruments with Off- Balance-Sheet Credit Risk

As a securities broker, the Company executes transactions with and on the behalf of customers. The Company introduces these transactions for clearance to a clearing firm on a fully disclosed basis.

In the normal course of business, the Company's customer activities involve the execution of securities transactions and settlement by its clearing broker. The agreement between the Company and its clearing broker provides that the Company is obligated to assume any exposure related to nonperformance by its customers. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations.

In the event the customer fails to satisfy its obligations, the Company may be required to purchase or sell financial instruments at the prevailing market price in order to fulfill the customer's obligation.

The Company seeks to control off-the-balance-sheet credit risk by monitoring its customer transactions and reviewing information it receives from its clearing broker on a daily basis and reserving for doubtful accounts when necessary

Independent Auditor's Report on Internal Accounting Control Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

Board of Directors Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. and Subsidiary San Francisco, California

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Nollenberger Capital Partners, Inc. and Subsidiary (the Company), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2007, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objective stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

- 1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
- 2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgements by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. However, we identified the following deficiency in internal control that we consider to be a material weakness, as defined above. This condition was considered in determining the nature, timing, and extent of procedures to be performed in our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2007, and this report does not affect our report thereon dated March 25, 2008.

The size of the business and the resultant limited number of employees imposes practical limitations on the effectiveness of those internal control policies and procedures that depend on the segregation of duties. Because this condition is inherent in the size of the Company, the specific weaknesses are not described herein and no corrective action has been taken or proposed by the Company.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2007, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the FINRA and other regulatory agencies which rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
